

Georgia on My Mind LED

NATRC Leisure Division Ride

Nov 5 and Nov 6, 2022

At Fausett Farms Horse Trails in Dawsonville, Ga

Note: See Page 2 for Traditional A/B Ride Info

Ride Information: Connie Fike and Danny Fausett welcome you to a sanctioned North American Trail Ride Conference (NATRC) Leisure Division Competitive Trail ride on November 5 and November 6, 2022

Come join us on picturesque trails through Georgia's mountains, woods and streams for a fun filled weekend! Additional information can be found at www.natrc.org or www.natrc5.org.

The competition will be two stand-alone NATRC Leisure Division rides, to include a pre-ride Clinic for those unfamiliar with NATRC. After registration, each day's activities will start with an introduction to NATRC, including an explanation of ride flow, timing, P&Rs, trail equitation and what the judges will be looking for. Separate 8-9 mile competitions will be offered, one on Saturday and one on Sunday. Enter one or both. Classes will have placings and prizes from first through sixth place. There is a $10 discount for Juniors.

- Leisure Class: Approximately 8 miles @ 3 mph each day. Classes will be Experienced, Adult, Junior. Cost per class is $50 for NATRC members and $60 for non-members. In addition to the entry fee, there is a $10/day trail fee required by Fausett Farms

 NATRC IS OFFERING FREE MEMBERSHIP FOR FIRST TIME COMPETITORS FOR 2022

Registration: Register on the Ride Management System (RMS) at <http://rms.natrc.net>. This Ride is limited to 30 entries (15 per day). Paper entry forms are also available upon request.

Make checks payable to: Connie Fike Mail checks to: Courtney Woodall 3348 Breton Court NE Brookhaven, GA 30319 Paypal to: clfike26@gmail.com Venmo to: @Connie-Fike

Camping Information: The NATRC Headquarters will be at Fausett Farms, 11336 GA-136, Dawsonville, GA 30534. Primitive camping is available at $15/night per rig.

Trail Information: Mountain trails wander through forests, along fields, and along the Amnicola creek. The ride will be over a marked trail within a specific time period. There will be up to 5 observations and one P&R stop per day. Horses and riders will be judged as a team. Distance conditioning, safety, equitation, trail manners and ability, way of going, soundness, and teamwork, as well as safety are all part of the competition.

Ride Notes: Check-in will begin at 8 am each day. Ride briefing and NATRC clinic information will follow at 9 am. Check in for the horses will start at 9:30 am, with ride out planned at 10:30 am. Riders should all be back in camp by 2:30 pm, when the final horse check will be held. Awards are planned for 4:30 pm. All competitors will receive a scorecard with feedback from the judges to help them learn and improve. Awards and prizes will be given for first through sixth place.

For questions about the ride, contact: Ride Chair: Connie Fike (717) 781-3236, clfike26@gmail.com

For more information on NATRC's Leisure Division, contact Courtney Woodall (404) 326-1989 or courtneyck@yahoo.com